PENN ELEVEN IN REAL GAME TODAY

Quakers Will Oppose Lebanon Valley at Annville in Regulation Contest

CAMP TOMORROW

Mount Gretna, Pa., Sept. 22 .- "1 will put twenty men in the varsity training house and under strict training regulations immediately upon the arrival of the team in Philadelphia Saturday night." said Coach Heisman, of the Penn team, today,

"These men will form the nucleus of my varsity team this season. There are some men that we have been unable to look over, but after all the candidates have been given a fair trial there will be more men put in the house. Of course, the varsity squad will consist of more men, but the training accommodaions are limited, and so the best must be selected.

"Coaches Davies and Draper will live in the training house with the men, and have direct charge over them. Conch Draper is the team's trainer this season and will have charge of all matters con-cerning their training."

Play Lebanon Valley Today

The Penn team will play a regula-tion game against the Lebanon Valley College at Annville this afternoon. Miss Maynard Wins Lansdowne Crown From Miss Lyster

Miss Elizabeth Maynard won the rls lawn tennis championship of ansdowne by defeating Miss Esther Lyster on the courts of the Lansdowne Playground, 7-5, 6-8, 6-2.

Miss Maynard's steadiness, combined with well-placed forehand drives, kept s Lyster running from one side of the court to the other during the entire match. Lyster made several remarkable "gets," but was anable to stand the pace set by her opponent and, after winning the second set, she was forced to admit defeat.

Miss Gilleadeau did not put up so good a game against Miss Bancroft as she did yesterday when the New York star defeated Miss Molly Thayer. She was inclined to drive the ball out frequently and several times made double faults, which really spelled her defeat.

Miss Bancroft, who is a left-handed racquet wielder, scored a number of accs, driving the ball deep into her opponent's territory. While Miss Gillendeau made valiant attempts to make returns, she was unable to reach the speedy drives and showed signs of fatigue shortly after the second game started.

Miss Mary K. Browne, of Los Angeles, runner-up in 1021 and considered "Marvelous Molla's" mightlest contender. The match will be Miss Browne's reappearance in "big time" tennis circles.
